

GEN. BURNSIDE has issued another ORDER in his Military Department, dated Cincinnati, June 8.—In this he says:—"The General Commanding directs that General N. C. McLean, Provost Marshal General, at once institute an investigation into the cases of all citizen prisoners now confined in this department, and in all such cases as do not clearly show premeditated disloyalty on the part of the accused, or when a desire is manifested to atone for past faults by future good conduct, the prisoners will be released on taking the oath of allegiance and giving bonds for a strict observance thereof."

He then says that in a time like this, "citizens should be willing to abate somewhat of the freedom of speech, and that freedom of discussion and criticism which is proper in the politician and the journalist in time of peace, becomes rank treason when it tends to weaken the confidence of the soldier in his officers and his Government."

In conclusion he says:—"The General Commanding desires to again call the attention of all officers, provost marshals, and others in authority, to the necessity of great care in the making of arrests, which should in all instances be founded on full affidavits sustaining distinct charges, except when the exigencies of the case demand instant action. Carelessness in this respect is only less censurable than negligence in the detection and punishment of crime."

LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The new steamer America, from Bremen and Southampton on the 27th of May, has arrived.

The Confederate loan fluctuated in consequence of the report of Stonewall Jackson's death.

Reports of a probable armistice, and the prospect of European offers of mediation, are revived in London.

The Times ridicules General Hooker's address.

American securities had advanced.

A great meeting favoring the recognition of the South has been held at Sheffield.

Mr. Mason has left London for Paris, giving increased strength to the rumors of French mediation.

The Confederate loan had advanced to par.

Orsses, on the Dnieper, has been occupied by the Polish insurgents. The Russians have been defeated at Birze. Russian troops have been ordered thither by forced marches.

Cotton firmer, but closed flat, with a downward tendency. Flour unchanged. Wheat improved; the demand for red American had advanced 1s. 2d.

The shipments of coal from Schuylkill county, Penn., last week, exceeded the amount shipped during the corresponding week last year, twenty-one thousand three hundred tons. Those dealers in coal who are attempting to bull the market and hold on for a rise, will be likely to have some losses to foot up before the season is over.

A man named Daniel Reardon was arrested in Rochester, on Wednesday, charged with resisting the enrolling officer. He was sent to prison to await examination. If found guilty, he will be fined two hundred dollars and imprisoned two years.

Canada is just now convulsed by the elections for members to the new Parliament. The different parties are classified as reformers, liberals, conservatives, clear grits and corruptionists.

Capt. Speke, the discoverer of the source of the White Nile, is expected soon to arrive at Alexandria, (Egypt) and a correspondent of the London Times states that the Viceroy has sent a steamer to meet him, with orders to help him in every way.

FROM RICHMOND.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Dispatches were received to-night from Richmond papers of to-day. Those who have read them say that the Confederates are exulting in what they allege to be great losses on the part of Grant's army. The Richmond papers for several days past have been continually increasing the numbers.

The Richmond Enquirer says: "Information has been received through a courier that Kirby Smith crossed the Mississippi, and with reinforcements has joined his forces at Port Hudson," but that while his forces were passing over, the Federal gunboats sunk one of their steamers, thus causing a loss to the Confederates of seven hundred men." [Another account says 70.]

Charles Creel, of Loudoun county, Va., who was released from the Old Capitol prison some time since, on taking the oath of allegiance, and with the understanding that he should go no further south than Alexandria, Va., was sent in again yesterday by the provost marshal of the defences south of the Potomac, and was committed to the Old Capitol.

A number of young men of Baltimore were last week arrested, by order of Col. Fish, on the charge of intending to go South and join the Confederate army. Two of them were released on Saturday evening on their parole to report every day at the provost marshal's office. The remainder of the party are yet in custody. It is understood that their cases will be disposed of to-day.

Sixty-three Confederate prisoners who were captured at Fredericksburg on Friday night, were brought to Washington yesterday, and sent to the Old Capitol prison.

On Friday he received notice that "his grave had been dug," and on that night three shots were fired at his sister's house. Next morning he came to Reading and resigned his commission. The attack is believed to have originated with the Knights of the Golden Circle.

The reported death of General Tilgham is not confirmed. His mother, who resides in Philadelphia, has received a letter from his wife, stating that she is with him, and that he was only slightly wounded in the engagement in which, by the previous accounts, he was said to have lost his life.

At the last moment of its session at Peoria, the Old School Presbyterian General Assembly reconsidered the resolution to hold its sessions next year in Boston, and selected the Third Church, Newark, New Jersey, instead.
